Note:

All required records and information must be submitted to the Credentials Committee before your application will be considered valid.

If supporting documentation will be submitted separately from the application, please advise our office.

Where a certificate of standing is required, the Law Society of Yukon (Society) will accept:

- if the certificate is issued by a Law Society in Canada, the original certificate, or an electronic copy if sent directly to the Society by the issuing Law Society;
- the original certificate if the certificate is issued by a body regulating legal professionals in a jurisdiction outside Canada.

1. I apply to the Society under rule 90 to have my suspension lifted. Included with my application is the following:

- A certificate of standing from each governing body, and each body regulating legal professionals in a jurisdiction outside Canada, in which I am or have ever been a member, dated no more than 60 days before the date the application is received by the Credentials Committee
- Payment of membership fees for each calendar year during the period I was suspended based on my class of membership at the time of suspension together with payment of any unpaid fees or levies owing to the Society (Contact Society office for amount owing.)
- Fees in the amount of $420.00 ($300 application fee, $100 Compensation Fund assessment plus $20 GST)
- Insurance assessment, if applicable.
