

SAMPLE AGREEMENT WITH AGENT FOR VERIFICATION OF CLIENT IDENTITY

Government issued photo ID verification method (individual inside or outside of Canada)

Under rule 174(2) lawyers may use an agent to verify the identity of a client whether the individual is inside or outside of Canada. However, Rule 174(3) requires that a lawyer must use an agent to verify the identify of a client if the individual is not physically present in Canada.

Rule 174(2) and 174(3) requires that the lawyer and agent have an agreement or arrangement in writing for this purpose. The Society recommends that lawyers use this sample agreement when retaining an agent to verify the identity of an individual client where the agent will meet with the client in person and review the client's original government issued identification document. The agreement will need to be amended if the agent will use other permitted methods of verifying identity.

The rules do not require that the agent be a lawyer or notary. Lawyers must use their judgment to choose a reputable person who understands what is expected and who will carry out the required work. Lawyers should keep in mind that the agent is the lawyer's agent, not the client's agent. Accordingly, the lawyer should select the agent rather than the client and follow up to ensure that the agent actually carried out the work. In some cases, potential new clients have chosen the agent to the lawyer's detriment. The agent was not who they purported to be and was simply part of an arrangement to set up a scam on the lawyer.
