

Access to Justice INITIATIVES FUND

Do you have an idea for improving access to justice for Yukoners?

The Initiatives Fund could help fund your idea.
Up to $5,000 of project
funds are available!

Do you have a project that reduces barriers to justice? Barriers can be physical, psychological, financial, linguistic or social.

Can you think of a way to help people understand their options with respect to legal problems and services?

The Access to Justice Initiatives Fund invites applications from non-profit organizations; community groups; individuals and legal professionals.

Your Access to Justice project could be to:

- Increase Yukoners' understanding of barriers accessing justice;
- Offer legal information for the public;
- Increase access to justice;
- Fill a gap in the community in accessing justice.

For the Guide & Application visit our website at lawsocietyyukon.com/equity-access/access-to-justice

Apply by: March 26, 2021

The Law Society of Yukon recognizes that there are many issues in the Yukon that limit or impede Yukoners' access to justice. They established an Access to Justice Committee in 2016 to identify, address and remedy issues related access to justice in the Yukon.